The Philadelphia Baptist Association, in its official minutes, of October, 1807, recommended
"that each member church of the Association subscribe for a copy of Dr. Gill's incomparable Exposition of the Old and New Testaments for the use of their ministers, and urge all sister associations to aid in the accomplishment of this desirable object."

A.D. Gillette,
The Minutes of the Philadelphia Baptist Association
1707-1807, p. 439

The Charleston Baptist Association
"recommended to the churches and the public to encourage, by subscription, the undertaking…to republish Dr. Gill's Exposition and each church was advised to provide a copy for the use of its minister"

David Benedict
A General History of the Baptist Denomination,
Vol. 2, p. 149

The Baptist Standard Bearer, Incorporated is a republication society organized in 1984, and is recognized as a nonprofit, tax-exempt charitable organization. It was founded for the primary purpose of republication and preservation of materials reflecting the Baptist heritage. It is not affiliated with, or financially supported by any association, convention or particular denomination. It is financed by individual donations, foundation grants, bequeathed inheritances, but primarily by the sale of its own publications.
